PROFILE

My point of view, and a few thoughts on product design:

Design for me has been all about 2 things, Colour and Order. I realised that I've had slight OCD when I used to have this uneasy feeling looking at Unordered designs. So, I started to design posters and I've developed a passion for it. So, I lowkey turned my OCD into a work of my passion. I am a lateral thinker with a creative analysis of things. Case Studies and Prototyping are the two things I like.
